A computer game: The Lost Statue

In this game you are in a small country called Neverland. It is a deserted place. The weather there is terrible. It rains a lot and there are strong winds. The only people there are two young brothers. They live alone in their small house on the beach. In the game, you are one of the boys - Josh or Frank. Josh loves the beach very much and he is good at windsurfing. Frank is interested in doing quizzes and playing guessing games.

One day, they meet a strange man. He collects old things. He needs to find a small statue from the Stone Age and he asks the boys for help.

You decide to help the man. First, you talk to the man and learn about the lost statue. Then, with your brother, organize a trip around Neverland to look for it.

On the way you play games, answer questions, do quizzes, visit different places and talk to different people. Collect objects and souvenirs - they are very useful

The Lost Statue is a great game! Discover the secrets of Neverland and learn about the old times. Play it now and have fun!

Is it important to know at least one foreign language for a person? Share your opinion on this point.

6. It is common knowledge that people should know a few foreign languages.

AY-31

Some people think that no need to know foreign languages.

Who is right? Who is wrong?

My personal view is that ~~we~~ necessarily know a few foreign languages

First of all ~~know~~ knowledge of the language expands a person's ability to travel

Moreover, a person can work in ~~is~~ many countries.

However, some people think that ~~it's~~ an extra effort and a waste of time

There is much ~~true~~ in what they say.

Correct me if I am wrong, but knowledge of a few foreign languages ~~these~~ are huge opportunities to realize their talents.

Tastes differ, but all in all, I still strongly believe that.
